Brand New Book  Print on Demand .If your spiritual practices of prayer, meditation, and Bible study were to be beautifully merged together with your daily life, and your life was to become so filled with love, grace and harmony, would it change your experience of living? Suppose you were told that there is something you can do to become a better, and if not, the best version of who you are today; would you take the challenge to try this something? Can prayer be made living or is prayer alive? Is this an extraordinary experience that only a few chosen or select persons can have, or it is an experience that all people can indeed have on a daily basis? Can you imagine what life would be like if every single person inhabiting earth was a Living Prayer? Perhaps you are wondering how this can possibly happen. St. Paul says it happens when you truly become a living temple of the Holy Spirit and offer prayer without ceasing (cf. 1 Thessalonians 5:16). He adds that you actually do this when you pray and sing with your spirit as well as your mind (cf. 1 Corinthians 14:15), and your praying becomes more organic, spiritually deeper and less verbal. A Living Prayer, speaks less to God, yearns more for God, and feels more in communion with the mysterious presence of GOD. It is a taste of what Enoch had when he walked with God until he was no longer there (cf. Genesis 5:24). It is practically living heaven on earth and having a foretaste of being in the Father's house, in the many dwelling places which the Lord Jesus has gone and prepared a place for you. It is...
