Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. This is a collection of stories of a young boy growing up in the 1920 s and 1930 s in a small Missouri town. The stories are based on the family legends of long ago interspersed with the realities of World War II. The stories are based on the character of real individuals but (many) of the stories are fictional. Notes From The Author (As An Educator) These are everyday fun stories for children who live in today s world. This is NOT your see Jane run type of book. These books do not replace the basic reading book. They do enrich vocabulary exposure significantly. Vocabularies can grow as they read the books with their older siblings or parents. Older children and even adults will love the stories well enough to read them aloud. Back Story This is why I write these stories as I do. They are narrative in style. As a child, I learned that the comics in the newspaper had very funny and interesting stories to tell. My parents read to us starting with the comics. I wanted to read everything everyone else could read. As my parents read the papers, magazines and books of all kinds, I learned that questions could be answered by reading them. Encyclopedias were the staple of finding answers of all kind of questions. I learned the alphabet and simple words that everyone else learned in school, but I pushed to read and learn everything my older brother did. I wanted to read about the interesting pictures in my mother s housekeeping magazines and about the wild animals and stories in National Geographic and the stories in the Reader s Digest. I KNEW...
