Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Work and Overwork in Relation to Health in Schools Mr. President, Ladies, and Gentlemen, I am deeply sensible of the honour which has been conferred upon me by the invitation of your President that I should open the discussion on Health in Schools, at this annual meeting in Oxford of the Teacher s Guild. The burden of implied responsibility, however, is to be measured by the honour of the position; and greatly, therefore, as I esteemed the confidence reposed in me, I felt considerable reluctance in accepting the duty, since I fully realized the fact that I should be addressing a body of experts, many of whom were more competent to fulfil the task. Indeed, had it not been for the special request of your President - a friend of twenty-two year s standing - I should scarcely have dared to undertake the important work. And those of you who know him as well as I do - able, esteemed, and amiable - will understand the difficulty of responding to any invitation of his with...
