DEVELOPING MENTAL POWER (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 100 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. Every teacher requires a working knowledge of the fundamental nature of the human mind. Without it teaching cannot be made either an interesting or a creative occupation. When psychologically informed, the teacher can operate on the mind of youth only in a formal and mechanical way, applying traditional and contemporaneous methods of procedure without much ability to adapt technique to conditions for the purpose of gaining predictable results. Certainly the teacher who would make his teaching Hfe an interesting and effective adventure with youth will wish to possess whatever scientific insight is necessary to an artful stimulation and control of growing minds. We recognize the field of human psychology as vast. At best its mastery is a patient and difficult matter. The important thing is to make a correct beginning. It will be highly economical of energy and discouragement. The waste of wrong views and partial views can hardly be overestimated. And such waste is largely avoidable if only the first general view of the nature of mind is accurately acquired. (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)
