The fatal shooting of Trayvon Martin by George Zimmerman took place on the night of February 26, 2012, in Sanford, Florida, USA. Martin was a 17-year-old African American high school student. George Zimmerman, a 28-year-old mixed-race Hispanic, was the neighborhood watch coordinator for the gated community where Martin was temporarily staying and where after Zimmerman approached Martin because he appeared to look like a group that had previously broken in homes in the area, a scuffle ensued and Zimmerman fatally shot Martin. Zimmermans trial began on June 10, 2013, in Sanford Florida. On July 13, 2013, a jury acquitted him of second-degree murder and of manslaughter charges, releasing a nation-wide out-cry and protests, for justice for Trayvon Martin, polarizing the races and uncovering the existing racial divide. In this book RELIGION RACISM AND RECONCILIATION Brndon Mathis explains how African-American Christians can draw on their faith to deal with social, judicial and economic injustice and come to a place of healing, forgiveness and racial reconciliation, unlocking the keys to reparations and restoration of the lost years of oppression and racial injustice. He shares his experiences, testimonies and revelation of how God delivered him from racial bitterness and unforgiveness, by the Word of God, from the hurtful past in America of Slavery, the racial oppression of Jim Crow laws and legislated racial discrimination, taking him from a bitter life to a better life. Religion Racism and Reconciliation would benefit everyone, Christian, and non-Christian alike, Black, or White, Jew, or Gentile, that wishes to see Dr. Martin Luther King Jrs dream of Reconciliation become a reality - Clyde Morris Pastor, Pennsylvania This item ships from La Vergne, TN.
