Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .From the Foreword. If the works of the ancients, which treat of love, had not unfortunately been lost, either through the malice of mankind, or by the lapse of time, we should doubtless have been able by means of reading to have increased our stock of information respecting the engenderment of men, and so have removed the cause of the lamentations of the illustrious Tiraquel. Although we no longer have this resource, our own and our friends experience enables us to compile a work on the rules laid down by Nature for the procreation of men, and we are, consequently, independent of the writings of the men of old. Nature, which is the Creator Himself, pervading the universe, will enlighten us on these matters, without our having to seek elsewhere. In this, we shall follow His precepts and obey His decrees. As, however, Truth and Nature are identical, we shall not seek to disguise facts, Nature and Truth being our guides throughout this work. We shall, therefore, have no scruple in revealing Nature*s secrets, and shall strive to throw light on the most obscure matters connected with the engenderment of mankind. I am fully aware that everyone is not strong-minded enough to study with befitting attention Nature s admirable productions; that there are many weak and over-scrupulous persons, who object to everything, which is not in accordance with their own tastes, and who dislike to be differed from. They can see no charms in the nakedness of Truth, and are horrified, unless she wear a disguise. They would have Truth conceal herself under a mask. One would think they were not human beings, for they...
