Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Planning for City, State, Region, and Nation: Proceedings of the Joint Conference on Planning May 4, 5, and 6, 1936, Richmond, Virginia The annual planning conference is now entered into jointly by the three organizations which resulted from the reorganization a year or so ago of the planning movement, namely: the American City Planning Institute, the American Society of Planning Officials and the American Planning and Civic Association, representing respectively, in a general way, the professional group, the group which is officially connected with the making or administration of plans, and the group which is engaged in promoting the movement and creating popular support for it. I think it may be said that it will not be necessary for each of us as we speak to define planning, especially as we have been spending many years unsuccessfully in arriving at a definition, but in general we mean the sort of thing we have done in city planning, the designing of the uses of land for human purposes and for the protection of human welfare. That...

Reviews

Thorough guideline! Its this type of good read. It is really simplistic but shocks from the 50 percent from the publication. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
