.written exercises are a dissertation, in French, on some points of philosophy, an, essay in Latin, an essay in French, a Latin and Gretk version, and Latin verses. The oral examinations turn upon t the classical authors read in college, and upon tho elements of philosophy, rhetoric, and history. The candidates in science have the same written exercises in philosophy and in Latin versions, and in addition, must solve one or more questions in mathematics and physics. The oral examinations are upon subjects of mathematics, physics, and philosophy, taught in the philosophy class of the colleges. All the written exercises and notes of the oral examinations are forwarded to the minister of public instruction, and submitted severally to a committee of letters and a committee of science/taken from among the masters of the normal school, the director being chairman of each committee. These committees decide...
