

Beyond Africas Democratic Experiments

By Paulus Iwuji

Authorhouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 280 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.8in. x 0.8in. The human society is witnessing an unprecedented upsurge in violence, wars, poverty, corruption, abuse of power and office, and many other inhuman conditions. This is a great concern for many minds especially in putting an end to it; and also building an inclusive and humanized society for lasting peace, justice and happiness. I feel a re-occurring disturbance and concern for this human situation and, thus, this book is my little contribution towards achieving this goal. Beyond Africas Democratic Experiments (An Odyssey Towards Inclusive and More Humanized World) is a book which looks at the concept of Democracy and its applications with objective analysis. It sharply observes that democracy as a political ideology, although it has a lot of riches and values to offer to humankind, is weak both in its nature and its practical applications in realizing those basic human nostalgic desires in terms of qualitative and dignified standards; in terms of bridging the gap between the rich and the poor; in terms of rooting out greed and exploitation; in terms of dismantling the culture of moral complacency. Africa especially and the so called Third World countries seem to...
