Freedom From Prejudice! is proud to support civil litigation in U.S. District Court via Title IX legislation and the U.S. Constitution to liberate and defend the civil rights of men against prejudice-prone-gender-hostile-hospital-based-clinical-learning-environments based on the following four-point opening and closing legal arguments regarding the case of Lagueux v. Bridgeport Hospital School of Nursing Case Number: 3:11-cv-01933-AVC U.S. District Court, District of Connecticut to be presented before a trial jury with the best legal counsel available: 1) Prejudice EXISTS against men attempting to enter the nursing profession. 2) Retaliation EXISTS against individuals who report prejudice to school and hospital administrators. 3) The Defendants failed to properly protect the Plaintiff from the prejudice and retaliation that EXISTS within their hospital based school of nursing. 4) The evidence will(has) show(n) and prove(n) that the EXISTING prejudice and retaliation merit compensatory and punitive damages to reconcile the Plaintiff for suffering the consequences of retaliation after reporting that prejudice EXISTS against men attempting to enter the nursing profession. Freedom From Prejudice! truly appreciates your donation to a worthy cause and would like to thank you for your continued moral support to ensure that mens civil rights receive their due guarantee under Title IX legislation and U.S. Constitution protections.
