

Behind His Mask (Paperback)

By D J Coleman

iUniverse, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Dr. Jackson Phillips seemed to have everything going well for him until he receives a mysterious package from a past acquaintance. It has been said that when we don't confront our past, our past sometimes will come back to confront us. Jackson has let his past personal affairs go unattended for far too long and now he has been forced to face his fears. Will Jackson now confess to Denise why he left her on their big day? Can Jackson face his demons now that he realizes his life has taken a drastic change for the worst? The clock is ticking, and Jackson only has a few more weeks before he ignites into his own self-destruction. This is a testament of how one man tries to overcome his inner demons and shattered past. Set in the upper class area of Strivers Row Harlem, New York, Behind His Mask is a story of betrayal, the power of love, and forgiveness.
