Excerpt from Souvenir of the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of the Opening of the Gaiety Theatre: 27th November, 1871 The drama was not always preaching from the boards of the Gaiety; it romped and laughed and sang, brightening the work-a-day lives of laborious citizens, who look to the Theatre for enjoyment. But none the less, the high mission of the stage was not neglected or forgotten Those end, both at the first and now, was and is, to hold, as t-were, the mirror up to nature; to show virtue her own feature, scorn her own image, and the very age and body of the time his form and pressure.
