Excerpt: . it was of very modest proportions at first, generally a tripod holding a diminutive jug and basin. The great love of flowers among the English gave us the flower-stand, and the sentimental preference for certain of Flora s offspring over others was accompanied by the costly delight in show that spent itself on plants and blossoms that were out of season. In Paris this love of flowers was first displayed after the Reign of Terror, and was brought more especially into fashion by the Empress Josephine, who was passionately fond of them; we have to thank her for the introduction of the Hortensia into our gardens. Even in those days flowers were ordered in winter from Nice and Genoa. Napoleon himself paid 600 francs a year to Mme. Bernard for a fresh bouquet to be sent him every day. As regards the decoration...
