Brand New Book. Excerpt from La Forge Farms Under a special health program, individual families have contracted with their physicians to get emergency medical care at a fixed fee, averaging about $18 per family. Plans for a medical care program on an insurance basis, with free choice Of physician, are now being seriously considered by the cooperative Association s Board of Directors and the rest of the families at La Forge. Such a plan would include medical care, prescribed drugs, surgery and hospitalization. One fsa employs who has worked closely with the La Forge fami lies recently remarked; Fundamental adjustments have taken place in the lives of these peOp1e during the period of transition from a one - crop system to diversified farming. In place of reliance upon the boss man for managemnt and instruction, there is now reliance upon their own information and initiative. Where once their energies went almost entirely to raising one crop, they now must know how to care for cows, mules, hogs, and poultry; how to raise corn, grain, grasses, and a variety of garden produce; and how to maintain and care for their new houses, their lawns, and the outbuildings. Before, they looked to the boss-man for furnish to tide them over from season to season. Now they must plan for the growing and canning of their own foods. All these activities and responsibilities call into play information, skills, and intelligence that the sharecroppers formerly had no occasion to use. Thus, the transition is in itself a process of education for them. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and...
