To say McSherry has lived a hard knock life is an understatement, but the Lehman High School teacher and Brio Award winner has crafted a Bronx version of Angela s Ashes that resonates with hope, wit, and perseverance. -Derek Woods, host of the television program, Bronx Magazine Told through a series of striking vignettes, A Clean Street s A Happy Street: A Bronx Memoir is a masterful coming-of-age tale brimming with heartache, forgiveness, and redemption. Growing up in a tough Bronx neighborhood during the 1960s and 1970s, James McSherry dreams of becoming a writer. Faced with his mother s mental illness, his father s brutal murder, and poverty s chokehold, McSherry refuses to lose sight of his future. He struggles to survive in a fragmented world, clinging to his education and his poetry when his mother s fragile grip on reality shatters. The harsh consequences of his mother s debilitating mental health binds McSherry and his four siblings in a painful knot, but the love and commitment they have for each other sustains them through a turbulent adolescence. Powerful and moving, A Clean Street s A Happy Street intimately reveals one man s determination to break free from a troubling childhood and boldly create a luminous new future.
