Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from St. Peter s Recognition of St. Paul: As the Author of the Epistle to the Hebrews The full proof of this assertion has not yet been reached: the last spark has been already struck from the rock of revealed truth. But light may follow new blows. Researches in Exegesis may still be progressive. The possibility encourages the experiment. We now venture upon a portion of the writings of St. Peter. St. Peter, at the end of his Second Epistle, writes these memorable and instructive words: Account that the long suffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you; as also in all his Epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other Scriptures, unto their own destruction. - 2 Peter 3. 15, 16. The original Greek of this remarkable passage demands a translation, which is different in several respects from the common version. Thus: The long-suffering of our Lord account salvation: even as also [with this accounting] our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom given him, writes* to you. As also in all his Epistles, thus speaking in them concerning these subjects, in which Epistles are certain truths very hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable are wresting, as also they are the other Scriptures, unto their own destruction. The Epistle to the Hebrews in the New Testament was composed as early as the year 62 of the Christian era. The Second Epistle of...
