

The Chase: A Ten Year Chase (Paperback)

By Ray Flannery

Outskirts Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Houston, Texas is a large city which makes lonely boys when they go there from small towns over in the mountains. Dewain and Bo were brothers who grew up in the mountains of Virginia and Kentucky. Seldom going to school and often robbing small stores for running cash. Their home was a small cabin in the mountains out of Pound, Virginia that offered little in the way of amenities beyond a roof and a bed. When they were about twenty years old they decided they needed to go to a larger city and see if there was a way to make money and not have to work too hard in the process. They applied at all the major industries they could find but their resumes didn't inspire many companies with a reason to hire them. As a result of their background they decided to visit the bars in town to see what the conversation was about. While having a beer after work one afternoon they happened to overhear a young man telling of his job at a bank loading lots of...
