The Effect of Labor Organization on Integrated Pest Management (IPM) Adoption : Empirical Study of Durian and Tangerine Production in Thailand

By Evi Irawan

Shaker Verlag Okt 2012, 2012. Taschenbuch. Condition: Neu. Neuware - Institutions, defined as 'the rules of the game', are a key factor to the sustainable development of societies. They structure not only the multitude of human-human interactions of modern societies, but also most of the humannature interactions. Poverty, famine, civil war, degradation of natural resources and even the collapse of ecosystems and societies often have institutional causes, likewise social and economic prosperity, sustainable use of resources and the resilience of socio-ecological systems. Agriculture, forestry and fisheries are those human activities where the interdependencies between human-human and human-nature interactions are perhaps most pronounced, and diverse institutions have been developed in history to govern them. Social and ecological conditions are, however, ever changing, which continuously challenge the existing institutional structure at a given point in time. Those changes may be long-term, like population growth or climate change, medium-term, such as new technologies or changing price relations, or short-term, like floods or bankruptcies, but all of them pose the question whether the rules of the game need to be adapted. Failures to adapt timely and effectively may come at a high social cost. Institutional change, however, face a principal dilemma: on the one...
