Isaiah, a prophet who lived during the time of King Hezekiah, penned a masterpiece of inspired literature when he wrote the book that bears his name. No Old Testament book is as often quoted by New Testament authors. No Old Testament book is as filled with messages about the coming of the Christ. No Old Testament book is as revelatory about the nature of the kingdom of Jesus and his church. In this 13-week study, Steven Hunter presents a series of lessons that center on a theme prevalent in Isaiah's workholiness and sin, leadership and murder, faithfulness and hope. Packed with practical application and alive with thoughtful illustrations, Steven brings Isaiah down to a personal level and challenges students to apply these messianic messages to everyday living.
