Excerpt: .people; and that they cannot keep their thoughts fixed, when they pray. What does it all mean? God is completing their education: He is teaching them the one lesson needed before they pass out of this life, --to have no will but His; to be able to say: Thy Will be done, O God, come what may: --wandering thoughts, weakness, weariness, depression: --Amen! One other point ought to be mentioned under this head: the discipline of Falls. You remember Dan. v. 23. that wonderful Psalm, --it is well worth studying, --where David tells us that in his prosperity he said: I shall never be removed; Thou, Lord, of Thy goodness, hast made my hill so strong. You observe, he recognized God, and thanked God. But he thought that God had made him so strong that he should never fall! And then, God took away His protection, and he did fall, and had to go back to his God right humbly. This is one of the commonest experiences of Christian people. You must have continually found, that after times of special thanksgiving and spiritual joy, there are falls. I have known men who had led many others to love and serve God, and then became satisfied with their experience, and fell, with a deadly fall. What does all this teach us, but that old lesson of the wilderness, ! --the lesson of Dependence, that there is no stock of manna for to-morrow, in the spiritual King dom:...
