D., 1884, Being the One Hundredth Anniversary of the Consecration of Samuel Seabury, First Bishop of the Church in America Psalm lxxxix. 3, 4. - I have made a covenant with my chosen: I have sworn unto David my servant; They seed will I stablish for ever, and set up thy throne from one generation to another. Unexpectedly called on to fill the preacher s place this morning, I comply with a request which I sought to evade. And yet, dear brethren, it seems not out of order, that one of those whose privilege it was to receive the delightful Christian hospitality of our own people in Scotland, and to give them greeting in your name, should bring back words of love from them to you. It was my good fortune, on invitation of the Bishops of Aberdeen, Edinburgh, and Glasgow, to be permitted, on more than one occasion, to address congregations of the Scottish Church; to speak to them of our gratitude for the past and our hopes for the future. Now, at home again, I ought, perhaps, to be glad of the opportunity to tell you, though at very short notice, something about the sister communion to which we owe the first gift of the Apostolic Succession.
