Excerpt from Domestic Homoeopathy, or Rules for the Domestic Treatment of the Maladies of Infants, Children, and Adults: And for the Conduct and the Treatment During Pregnancy, Confinement, and Suckling There is no profession so complicated and loaded with responsibilities, - no science so profound and which draws so largely from other collateral sciences as that of medicine; and in order to be able to meet all emergencies, extensive preparation must be made. In the absence of the ability to make this extensive preparation, we may throw out a few useful lessons of instruction to help the novice in his treatment of disease, when a homeopathic physician cannot be obtained.
