Excerpt: . the election proper was conducted in a peculiar manner. In 1630 assistants were first chosen by the freemen. The following year the freemen were permitted to propose those whom they desired chosen, and if it be doubtfull whethr it be the great pte of the comons or not, it shalbe putt to the poll. When the ballot was first used in 1634, a special form of procedure was employed in the election of assistants. Governor Winthrop informs us that they were dhosen by papers without names, 11iz., the Governor propounded one to the people when they all went out and came in at one door, and every man delivered a paper into a hat--such as gave their vote for the party named gave in a paper with some figure or scroll in it, others gave in a blank. This was substantially the form...
