

Standards-Based Counseling in the Middle School

By Mary Ellen Davis

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 112 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.4in. x 0.4in. Standards-Based Counseling in the Middle School is replete with information about counseling middle school students. The national counseling standards are highlighted throughout book, as they are the keys to organizing and delivering effective services. The contents of the book exemplify the role of the counselor in responding to and assisting middle school students to enjoy positive educational and personal social experiences. Those persons needing to read this book are among the following: counselors, teachers, parents, school administrators, counseling supervisors, child welfare workers, classroom paraprofessionals, community based agency personnel, school psychologists, and counselor educators. This book should be read and used by anyone or any group that works with students. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.

READ ONLINE
[1.21 MB]

Reviews

Completely among the best pdf I actually have possibly read through. It is probably the most awesome pdf we have read. You wont really feel monotony at whenever you want of your time (that's what catalogs are for about in the event you ask me).

-- Prof. Martine Lesch

This kind of pdf is every little thing and taught me to looking forward and more. It is one of the most incredible book i have read. You wont truly feel monotony at whenever you want of your time (that's what catalogs are for about should you check with me).

-- Miss Amelie Fritsch DVM