Two steps behind, three steps too late. Stained with teardrops, moonshadows dance. Iridescent incense, forbidden romance Gabriel, beautiful, tortured soul. Fallen angel, minus ebon wings, searching for something he can never have or so he believes. Male sensuality at its finest, a dark secret thrust upon him, damning him to eternal life and a thirst which can never be quenched. Strong, independent, exotic Jade; complacent in her life and in her journey. Never wanting for more, refusing to need anything, from anyone. Until she meets Gabriel and learns that she is cursed by a genetic disposition that will soon force her to walk the same dark path he does. Without a choice, a faceless whisper in a sea of screams, and through an act of divine intervention, Jade survives the initiation into a world of midnight and black roses the world of the vampire. Gabriel unwittingly drags her into his torrid past, forcing her to search her emotions and her soul in order to determine how she must live to thrive, a whirl-wind journey of the flight and fancy of the human, and now vampire, struggles and emotions needed to survive. More than that, her extraordinary circumstances and unheard of abilities lead her into the temptation of demons and their minions, Hell s seduction, a struggle that blurs the lines between light and dark, and Jade must ultimately decided what is more important; her need to be independent, her need to survive, or her love for Gabriel.
