A Poet, his Birth and Environment. And Nature, the old nurse, took The child upon her knee, Saying, here is a story-book Thy Father has written for thee. Come wander with me, she said, 1 Into regions as yet untrod, And read what is still unread In the manuscripts of God. And he wandered away and away With Nature, the dear old nurse, Who sang to him night and day The rhymes of the universe. And whenever the way seemed long, Or his heart began to fail, She would sing a more wonderful song, Or tell a more wonderful tale. --Longfellow. I believe God intended Kingsley to be, above all, a poet. I believe that in some of his poetry he rises higher than in all his prose, ay, to the level of his greatest contemporaries. I believe that since Shakespeare,...
