Everyone on Raven s team had been seriously wounded, and now Josie, the woman he loves and a major American asset due to her paranormal abilities, is in a drug-induced stupor at a medical facility. Wracked with guilt over his inability to have adequately anticipated and prepared for the danger, Raven is recuperating at the remote private estate in California known by the resident staff as the Ranch. In this riveting and suspenseful sequel to Raven s Run, the author not only reunites the protagonists...
