Sunflower University Press, 2002. Paperback. Condition: New. New. "A Wartime Journey, Bail-Out over Belgium," by William L. Cupp. Nice gift for those interested in the lesser-known escape and evasion part of World War II in Europe and in the part the French and Belgian resistance played to help airmen. This book is a true account of that starts with a bombing mission by the 8th Air Force, 493rd Bombardment Group out of Norfolk, England on June 14, 1944. Bill's plane was shot down over Belgium. For eleven weeks he evaded capture, hidden by Belgian and French farmers of the Resistance. He later spent eight months at German prisoner of war camp. Cupp was a member of the Air Force Escape and Evasion Society (AFEES) and the American Ex-Prisoners of War.
