Forgotten Books, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Annual Report of the Legislative Library, 1982: Rapport Annuel De La Bibliotheque Legislative, 1982 The Rare Book Collection was established in the year 1884 when the first Legislative Librarian wrote the words Rare Volume on the inside covers of several valuable books. In order to protect them from theft, the rare volumes were stored in the Librarian s office, a common practice in many small and medium-sized libraries. Along with items of a high monetary value, many of which were donations, the early Rare Book Collection also included books related to the history of Manitoba and the North West. In later years, many modern works relating to Manitoba and its people were added. Although the Rare Book Collection contains items that are valuable and unique, such as the Red River Library it is a vital part of the service function of the Legislative Library. It provides information to well-known writers and to academic researchers in such fields as history and exploration of the North West, agriculture, the arts, genealogy, social questions and economics. The emphasis on items related to Manitoba assures the...
