Disinformation (Paperback)

By Frances Leviston

Pan MacMillan, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Main Market Ed. Language: English . Brand New Book. Frances Leviston s first collection, Public Dream, was one of the most acclaimed debuts of recent years, and praised for combining technical mastery with a lucidity that verges on the hypnotic (Independent).Leviston s keenly-anticipated second book sees both an intellectual and dramatic intensification of her project. We often credit poetry as a kind of truth-telling, but it can also be an agent and a vessel of disinformation: in the course of making its proofs and confessions, it also seeks to persuade and seduce by any means it can. Leviston uses both sides of poetry s tongue to address one of the key questions of the age: how have we come to know what we think we know? In the title poem, a woman preparing for a child s birthday party suddenly glimpses the invisible screen of false data behind which she lives - and her own complicity in its power. Many of these poems are concerned with ruined or abandoned structures, dismembered and disappearing bodies, constructed and deconstructed identities; behind them lie the false gods who manipulate the streams of information with which...
