Excerpt from Notes of the Trip Across British Columbia: From Golden, on the Canadian Pacific Railway, to Kootenai, in Idaho, on the Northern Pacific Railway, and of Our Visit to the American National Park, the Yellowstone, in Wyoming, Thence Home Via St. Paul and the New Soo Line Co1. Baker was absent in England, Capt. Armstrong gave us a. Letter of introduction to his manager, Mr. French, to whose kindness and courtesy we felt much indebted. We spent a very pleasant evening with him and two young English gentlemen, who were living with him on the ranch. The Colonel had an excellent store full of Supplies, and we replenished our needs for the rest of the journey. The ranche is the largest in this district of country, we believe We saw a considerable number of cattle and horses. Crops of roots and grain can be grown by means of irrigation, and they were fairly good this season, Mr. French informed us. We left next morning, much refreshed for our journey. One of the young Englishmen had recently been over the route, and gave us some useful information about the country we had to traverse. We had a rough and difficult trail before us, on the sides of steep mountains, rocky and full of fallen trees. Our weather, so far, could not be more favorable - bright and clear, but with heavy frosts after the sun went down. We were told to expect rain as soon as we reached moyie Lake and River country. It is known, as the name Moyie implies, as the wet or rainy country. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books....
