Great electronic book and useful one. It can be written in straightforward terms rather than difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Excerpt: . . . against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, and the rulers of the darkness of this world, and spiritual wickedness in high places. The grand remedy for the miseries of Ireland is the gospel--the gospel in its native character as a system of conciliation--the gospel, laying aside the pomp of worldly authority, much more the aspect of the oppressor, and the unnatural and monstrous alliance of the sword--the gospel, armed only with that benevolence and love which is to the world a mystery, and proclaiming, in the language of its most successful preacher, seek not yours, but you. Yes, brethren, Ireland is a field for the missionary. The genuine missionary bears no weapon but that of love to the souls of men. The apostle Paul was a missionary of the highest order, and the model of all future labourers in the field of the world. What an emphasis is there in his declaration--We persuade men! Persuasion is the life and soul of human agency, as employed in the salvation of mankind. It was evidently the grand pervading principle of all the apostles preaching, and the motto of all his writings. It was the secret, but omnipotent charm, by which, under the Spirits power, the Jew and the Greek, the bond and the free, the learned and the rude, were all brought into one common brotherhood of love! It was the fire that gently melted down the most discordant materials into one mass, so that...
