Bright Lights Big City Books, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A QUEST FOR EXCITEMENT AND ADVENTURE LEADS TO A DARK PLACE The Benevolent Terrorist is a thinking person s adventure story, in the vein of various novels by Graham Greene, Robert Stone, and Patricia Highsmith. It tells the tale of a troubled young American named Jack who s been wandering the world for extended periods on an increasingly desperate quest for excitement and adventure. Jack is traveling with a likable and beautiful Australian woman, who s quickly getting fed up with him. In Athens, they meet a mysterious loner, an ex-Army guy who recently finished working construction in Tunisia. The unlikely trio travels to a Greek island where a romantic triangle develops. Jack s deep desire to escape boredom and his theory of benevolent terrorism - fighting terrorists with terror - lead the two men on a dark and violent adventure. The novel explores with intelligence a number of the disturbing aspects of life and artfully straddles the boundary between commercial and literary fiction. A fantastic, existentialist thriller with visceral charm.offers a trio of vivid character studies while filling [the narrative] with sinister tension.sharp, philosophical, and occasionally surreal prose. - Kirkus Reviews.
