Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Memoir of William C. Cattell, D.D., LL. D: 1827-1898 In Princeton the life-work of Dr. Cattell as an educator began in 1853 by acceptance of the post of associate principal of the Edgehill Preparatory School Two years later, in 1855, he was called to the professorship of ancient languages in Lafayette College, and, removing to Easton, Pennsylvania, he rendered his first service in the institution destined to become his chief monument. For five years he filled this position with eminent success, and then there occurred an interregnum, which proved an essential part of his providential preparation for the later and larger work which he was to do for Lafayette. He received an urgent call to become the first pastor of the Pine Street Church, in Harrisburg, recently colonized from the Market Square Church. Although his professorship was most congenial and he had already formed strong attachment to his fellows of the faculty, as well as to the society of Easton, he felt he was summoned of God to resign his professorship for the pastorate. He was led, by a way he knew not of, to lay down his work for the College, only that he might take it up again when more broadly furnished for it and when it was in greater need of his services. Harrisburg was soon thereafter one of the throbbing centres of the excitement attending the outset of the war.
