So that I come not to your public pleadings, or your places of noise: not that I neglect those things that make for the dignity of the commonwealth; but for the mere avoiding of clamours and impertinences of orators that know not how to be silent. And for the cause of noise, am I now a suitor to you. You do not know in what a misery I have been exercised this day, what a torrent of evil! my very house turns round with the tumult! I dwell in a windmill: the perpetual motion is here, and not at Eltham. True. Well, good master doctor, will you break the ice? Master...
