

My Little Po-Mo 3: Unauthorized Critical Essays on My Little Pony: Friendship Is Magic Season Three and Derivative Works (Paperback)

By Jed a Blue

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Like them or hate them, the fans of My Little Pony: Friendship Is Magic have created a plethora of derivative works, from the typical fanfiction and fanart to long-running comics, audio dramas, video games, songs, and even animation! Not to be outdone, licensed derivative works have proliferated as well in the years since the series began. But is this a natural and healthy expression of fandom? Or appropriation by adult men of one of the few quality works not created with them in mind? This third volume of essays adapted from the blog My Little Po-Mo combines a critical study of the third season of My Little Pony: Friendship Is Magic with analysis of both licensed derivative works and a selection of fanworks to explore these questions and the show which inspired them. This volume includes: Critical essays on every episode of the third season. Additional essays on licensed works such as the IDW comics series and the Equestria Girls spin-off movies. Analysis of more than a dozen fanworks, including Friendship Is Witchcraft, Ask Jappleack, Rainbow Factory, and Mega Pony IA case...
