

Death by Widow (Paperback)

By Robert J Daviau

Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . You will love Lance Bonner. Whether singlehandedly fighting a battle in Vietnam, or litigating endlessly in Court, Lance is driven by the belief that good conquers evil. Time after time, Lance the lawyer prevails. Along the way, he creates many enemies, but even more friends. The world would have been perfect but for his affinity for the black widow. When all others failed, the widow singlehandedly brings him to the abyss. Lance had always fought-it was his code. Could he take on the widow? If not, life as he knew it was over. Death By Widow is about a man and his endless conviction that good prevails. For courtroom lovers, this is a must read. Robert J. Daviau is a Maine attorney who lives in Rangeley, Maine. He lives with his wife, Norma. He has three sons and two grandchildren. He spent 40 years practicing in Maine courts, both as a prosecutor and in civil practice. He has published hundreds of articles. He is a fly fisherman and has traveled extensively in pursuit of salmon, trout, and bonefish. He has...
