Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Haunted Millionaire of Montecito Some wag. Has suggested that the American government send an ambassador to Santa Barbara. Its ideals and spirit are not of the 20th, but belong to another world. In America we believe in the government of all the people, by all the people, for all the people. In Montecito the ideal is the government of all the people by the snobocracy, for the snobocracy. Now a snob is a person of common or inferior worth who assumes the airs of superiority on the basis that we are saved, not by grace, but by ancestry and gold dollars. George Washington would have fought just as hard to free the people from Montecito ideals as he did to escape the ideals of King George. It is not a question of brains, character and the spirit of honorable endeavor here. In this live oak vale, but just the question of a mere money bag. The American Ideal Demands the Free Mingling of All Kinds and Classes In Montecito none but the rich are wanted. The chained gate, the...
