Excerpt: .general assembly in any way indicating that the licensee must be a citizen of the United States or of this state or that he must be able to speak the English language. In fact section 6 of the act specially authorizes the issuance of licenses to non-residents. The fact that they shoot game or birds out of season or shoot upon the public highway or disturb by such shooting the stock of farmers, each of these matters would constitute a public offense for which they might be punished under the sections of the statute with which you no doubt are familiar but would not furnish a ground for refusing them a license. The license, however, may be revoked under section 10 of the law where the licensee is found hunting on enclosed or cultivated lands of another without permission. Yours truly, C. A. ROBBINS,...
