

The Ghastling: Book Five (Paperback)

By -

The Ghastling, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This issue is full of women. Women lost, disappeared, heroic, misguided, spurned, haunted, wicked, put-upon, neglected, misunderstood, bedraggled, ghostly and preoccupied. In Bryan Marshall's The Grin Thief, grief plants a black seed into the mind of a woman who loses her family to a terrible accident and so begins a frightful scheme. Callum McAllister's story The Smog Geist, a young girl loses her way home from school amidst a thick yellow fog, beware the stranger approaching. Parineeta Singh's Crocuses in Spring, 1958 tells of a nanny employed to take care of a troubled little boy whose imaginings become unnerving. Enter the heady, strange Fairy Glen of Claire Savage's story The Flame Keepers where ghostly apparitions float in the woods at certain times of the year and people are spirited away, or are they taken? In Joao Morais' Corpse Candle, a young girl is sent to fetch the doctor for her gravely ill father, but her mother has filled her head with tales and warnings of a witch that may obstruct her route through the...
