GEOGRAPHY FOR THE FIFTH AND SIXTH GRADES: A COURSE OF STUDY AND TEACHERS MANUAL (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Geography for the Fifth and Sixth Grades: A Course of Study and Teachers Manual In the fifth grade we are ready to take up in detail those things immediately around us and thus finish the foundation for future work no matter what the locality. After the home region it is as easy to follow one sequence as another and many times easier to follow a text than to set up an arbitrary sequence and try to adapt the text to suit its needs. Since following the text solves many difficulties and offers few obstacles, the reasonable thing to do is to follow the book that has been prescribed and make the best of it by adding to or taking from it as the case demands. The adding to it can best be done through many of the excellent supplementary readers. As there arc many things thrown into a description of any region for the sake of making it as complete as possible it becomes necessary for the teacher to select and evaluate the different topics. Some are worth practically nothing while the others are of the utmost practical importance. It is not an easy matter to say offhand just what is to be kept in and what is to be left out unless one takes a certain standard and judges all topics and details of content by that one standard. Tf that is to ho done, the only legitimate standard will be the standard of use. Of what use is it or of what use will it bet This is the question that must be answered. If the point will not defend itself when analyzed...
