

Harem Girl: A Harem Girls Journal

By Mariyah Saalih

iUniverse. Paperback. Condition: New. 336 pages. Hold close to Sapphira the harem girl, as she takes you into the hidden world of an Arabian sheiks harem. Here, surrounded by luxury and lustful decadence, she tells about her life and romances as a harem slave girl. The moment she arrives in the harem as a naive young girl, eunuchs instruct her in every facet of the art of pleasing her master. She recounts On one hand, I looked forward to knowing these things, yet on the other, I was aghast at the ways I had to show myself and the things I had to do for him. It thoroughly unnerved me to realize that I must come to know a man in these ways a man I scarcely knew. Her story of life in the harem is compelling and moving, revealing a level of lustful debauchery, submission, and luxurious decadence unimaginable today, but completely believable in the era in which it is set. And we feel we imaginew could be her, sharing her joy and tears, as intriguing, romantic, and sometimes wretched events unfold. But all is not as it first appears. She uncovers chinks in the sheikhs cold and indifferent exterior hearts...
