Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .History does not always tell the true story, as we all know. This book does. To the best of our knowledge, it s like this. The founding fathers of our country set up the laws to govern others, not themselves. They wanted freedom for themselves. They lied about caring whether others were free and had the same God given rights they did.They said they wanted freedom for all, but they did not mean it. They kept slaves. Nearly half of these men kept human beings as their workers and sex slaves. That s what happened.and that s the truth. Yet we honor these men, as if they were our heroes. They weren t. They were men of business and not men of morals. They enslaved entire families to do their bidding. Whatever that bidding was. And yet, we honor these men in our history books and continue to teach these lies. When does it end? When do we say. Chisel those faces off Mount Rushmore? It is a living lie. Men have enslaved other men. weaker men, women and children for all of time. When does it stop? It may stop with the truth about how this country was founded. The most amazing fact to me, is this. They came from England to escape royal monarchy, only to establish it here. Brilliant! No more lies. Our founding fathers were our fondling fathers. Beating and enslaving and raping other men, women and children. Yeah, that s the truth. Sickening, isn t it?.
