Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand  Organisers, are you stuck for an ENTERTAINMENT IDEA for your students, parishioners, social group, society, choir or whatever? Why not try an improvised murder mystery play? With a mid performance break for refreshments it s a pleasant way to pass an evening and even raise some funds! * You will need a cast of twelve players (NO ACTING ABILITY is needed) and one of the twelve to be the MC to steer events and guide the audience. The twelve (apart from the MC) are all SUSPECTS in a murder investigation. * Each character is given his or her part but not those of other actors. There are NO LINES TO LEARN. The part is a complete description of where the character was when the murder took place and lots of suggestions and clues so that he or she can throw suspicion on the others and clear himself. The character is NOT ALLOWED TO TELL LIES. *ONLY the actual murderer CAN LIE and this is how the audience become suspicious. Only the murderer knows that he or she is the murderer. The other actors don t. So don t pass the complete script around. * FUN! It s fun dressing up and speaking with different accents. * A MURDER MYSTERY evening will draw your group together and improve group interaction. Strictly speaking no rehearsal is necessary IF EACH PLAYER is prepared to master his CHARACTER (not his lines) and dress and speak in the role. It goes better with a rehearsal because it improves the performers confidence. * It s a game of two halves! The first half is the performance, the second is the audience voting. The MC describes the crime and...
