Reviews

Here is the finest publication we have read right up until now. It is actually written in easy words instead of difficult to understand. Its been written in an remarkably easy way in fact it is only right after i finished reading this book in which basically changed me, modify the way i really believe.

Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 67: May 4, 1905 In addition to this I am happy to say to this congregation and to all the world so far as my words may go, that we have taken the liberty to render aid to many of our missions abroad in the purchase and in the establishment of mission headquarters and the building of churches in which they can meet to worship God, and in which they will not be ashamed to invite the stranger to come and join with them. We have used the tithings of the people for this purpose, and we think that when the Church desires to call us to an account for matters of this kind there is a way by which it can be reached which will not occasion any noise or any confusion, and I trust without any misunderstanding whatever. I believe we can come to a perfect understanding with reference to these matters. We have been able, also, to purchase quite a tract of land in Jackson county adjacent to the site that was chosen by the Prophet Joseph Smith for a temple, to be built some day; and a few of our people have generously contributed for the accomplishment of this purpose, but the most of the means that have been employed for the accomplishment of this purpose have necessarily been taken from the general tithing funds of the Church. By this means we have been able to secure elegant headquarters for our mission or for our people in the Northern States mission; we have been able to assist the Southern States mission to obtain headquarters; and we have also been enabled...
