Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Christian Union Quarterly, Vol. 7: July, 1917 Once union appeared to be largely a theological problem, but students are now seeing it has clearly as much. To do with psychology, for our differences in many instances are temperamental. Into this field we must go cautiously, seeking to adjust our differences by temperament rather than by theology. Perhaps more than theology or psychology is the necessity of the higher ethical standard. The scandal of our pride, conceit, love of self, jealousy and other works of the flesh are known around the world. These must be got rid of, as the drunkard gets rid of his drunkenness, the fornicator of his fornication and the idolater of his idolatry. These are the great sins that are barriers far above all the theological or psychological differences, so the emphasis of these times must be upon the fundamentals of the religion of Christ rather than upon secondary issues.
