Correspondence, and c, 1747--57. William Cookworthy shone more in conversation than in writing. He was neither an author nor a great letter writer. A few letters, however, have been preserved, which not only show his character, but are intrinsically valuable. Here is one, addressed to Mary Williams, of Exeter, from Plymouth, 22nd, 1 mo. , 1747: --Dear Friend, Mary Williams, In a measure of divine life and fellowship of the gospel, I tenderly salute thee; and I choose the present time, because thou art brought very fresh to my remembrance, as indeed thou hast been many times, especially about the close of my last Cornish journey. For, as in the course of it, and in the services to which I was called, I witnessed the Lords supporting arm to be near me, so was my mind frequently tendered and raised into a...
