Outskirts Press, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A Tale of Two Erics Once in a great while, a book of short stories comes along that is so profound and honestly funny it can engage its reader to the point of immediately reading it cover to over . several times. Then, after reminiscing about the many parallels to one s own life and upbringing, all the reader wants to do is share such a book with their close friends and family. A Tale of Two Erics is this type of literary gem! Written by Eric Sharpe, a standup comedian from Wichita, Kansas, the autobiographical, A Tale of Two Erics, chronicles the exploits of a young Sharpe and his lifelong friend, Eric, who lived next door. Thirty short chronicles to be exact, depicting everything from firing bottle rockets into traffic to mastering the art of the prank phone call, along with plenty of other highly irreverent shenanigans in between. A Tale of Two Erics is a comical, non-fiction blast from the past about two young boys sharing an adolescent suburban journey through the 70 s and 80 s, filled with things you hope and pray your own kids will never think about, let alone actually do. the type of guys who tormented their sisters when they were seven and spent their summers drinking beer and shoplifting when they were 17. These guys were the young rebels down the block. the ones who were always grounded. In a time when fantasy novels, political analysis and self-help manuals fill America s bookshelves, A Tale of Two Erics is a welcome dose of pure entertainment, full of wit, wisdom and undeniable charm. Author Eric Sharpe has an exquisite way of using brand names of...
