Jean Bernard after hanging habits Benedictine monk decides to follow his path of winemaker by stressed vineyards, because he is from Burgundy and knows that the quality of the grapes comes from vineyards toiling and poor performance. He meets Anne Sophie, a woman who comes from the German Moselle, and who has a reputation as a witch around those medieval castles. Paulina and Pedro are known and born in the Bierzo where they foam butterflies from the moving heads of flowers in the spring. Both try to make a good wine and look for the essence of the character and personality of an Atlantic wine. Nerea and Raul meet in Monterrei, Galicia, she is a bank financier and he has a restaurant and a family winery that, being small, is causing losses in the family economy. Stripes of shadows lie in the twining of the vineyards, and they sharpen their profiles with golden threads and amorous in these three choral stories that are narrated until arriving at the rooted center of the earth.
