Excerpt from Mental and Social Culture: A d104 Book for Schools and Academies What are the means by which my mental faculties may be best developed and strengthened? What is the most successful mode of study? How much, and when, and how? How shall I learn the principles of politeness, of personal accomplishment - of rendering myself agreeable? What are the errors into which I am most liable to fall? What the habits I should seek to avoid? These are questions that come home to every youth, but on which instruction has been greatly neglected.
